The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

How It All Began

It was interesting to see a couple of epigrams show up in the comic pages of the San Diego daily newspapers a few days ago.

There was Mary Worth saying of a person she was yet to meet, "Where jealousy is the jailor, many break the prison!"

The next day there was a character (prehistoric) in the strip "STANLEY" who was saying "Ambition is the tiger ego that feeds on the soaring white heron of spirit."

Strange language for comic strips where single syllable words with ideas to match are the order of the day.

Sweet ol' Mary's observation may have come from what Shakespeare wrote in "OTHELLO." "... Of one that lov'd not wisely but too well; Of one not easily jealous, but being wrought, perplexed in the extreme; of one whose hand, like the base Indian, threw the pearl away..."

Few of today's epigrams are modern. Many came from the orientals. Stanley's may have come from the Chinese. If indeed the Chinese said it generations ago, it would be properly said today that "It is not the need that makes the greed."

The Japanese, too, provide a rich source of wise sayings. Here are some that you may recognize. If you dislike these, make up your own.

"Two heads are better than one" may have started in Japan as "Consult anyone even if it be your own knees."

Others:

You can't get blood from a stone was probably

Clam are not available from the field

Crocodile tears, was

Tears even in the devil's eyes

Still water runs deep

An able hawk hides its claws

Show me a liar and I'll show you a thief

To tell a lie is the beginning of a thief

An onion will not produce a rose

Eggplants never grow on cucumber vines

Everyone thinks his geese swans

Parents partial eyes

Choose neither a woman nor linen by candlelight

Choose a bride and piecegoods in the daytime

Strike while the iron is hot

Do quickly what is good

Pearls before swine

Gold coins to a cat

Love is blind

Love's partial eyes

Bad news spreads fast

An evil act runs a thousand miles

Cry over spilt milk

Spilt water never returns to the tray

Sue a beggar and catch a louse

A wattle-hat for a debt of a hundred gold coins

Misery loves company

Those suffering from the same ailment have mutual sympathy

Easier said than done

Easy to say, hard to do

New broom sweeps clean

A new servant works hard 20 days

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure

Sanitation first, medicine next

Kill two birds with one stone

Single effort, double gain

Like water off a duck's back

Water on a fog's face

Money makes the man

Wealth make a fool a master

There are many others from various cultures. The Arabs did it best with imprecations such as "May 10,000 lice infest your armpits."

Grandma and grandpa can give you many more, most of which have historic beginnings.

4 Holdups in 3 Hours Charged to S.V. Youths

An armed robbery spree by two Spring Valley juveniles didn't last very long.

But the pair raised Cain while the caper lasted.

It started at the residence of Gloria Mercedes Camacho of 934 Felicita st. in Spring Valley about 3 a.m. November 3 when her son discovered his 1970 Datsun pickup truck had been stolen.

Later, wrecked, it was learned that it had been stolen by the youth, both 17, and used in the commission on three 7-11 Stores and one U-Toten.

Two detectives of the sheriff's Lemon Grove office Charles Larson and Duncan McIntosh were involved in the chase and the apprehension of the youths after they crashed into a fence on El Monte Park rd. about 6 a.m.

During the 3-hour spree, the youth are identified as the suspects who used a shotgun to hold up a U-Toten store ($40) at 9775 Maine st., Lakeside; and 7-11 stores at 8625 Los Coches rd., Lakeside; ($102) 10777 Jamacha rd., Spring Valley, and 800 Jamacha rd., El Cajon ($14).

They also took wine, beer and cigarettes, it was reported. One of the youths had a record of 20 arrests starting in 1973.

L.G. Planning Assn. To Meet

The monthly meeting of the Lemon Grove Planning Association will be held tonight at 7:30 at 6917 San Miguel st., Lemon Grove at the residence of Bob Holaday.

Plans will be developed for a December general meeting of the association at that time Mayor Jim Dorman will discuss planning.

Anyone interested in zoning and community planning is invited to attend, Holaday said.

Sunday Rain is .08

Most residents slept through it but there was a rainfall Sunday night.

It measured .08 of an inch and brought the season total to 2.44 inches.

At the same period last year the total for the season was 2.78. It was the first time there had been more rain last year than this.

Rain years start July 1 each year.

Council Reproves Doherty For Unilateral Activity

Dissension, which had been smoldering for weeks on the Lemon Grove City Council, broke into the open at the Monday night meeting when Councilman Jack Doherty was criticized for: 1. a Letter to the Editor in the SAN DIEGO UNION in which his councilmanic title appeared. In the letter, he was critical of San Diego County Sheriff John Duffy.

2. Neighborhood meetings that are called and presided over by Doherty as a councilman but without the knowledge of other councilmen until after the fact, and

3. the acquisition of an administrative assistant (intern) without approval of the council.

Councilman Dale Bailey posed questions to the body regarding these matters and reminding that the sheriff is the present police chief of the City of Lemon Grove. Bailey said he had heard no complaint about the sheriff's service. He noted that the City would soon be in negotiations with the sheriff regarding continuing police service and that such complaints suggests dissatisfaction.

Disavows Letter

The council approved a motion that a letter be directed to the sheriff disavowing Doherty's posture where the council was concerned.

Doherty abstained from the vote but told the council "If you think you're going to screen my correspondence, you're nuts."

Regarding unilaterally called meetings, Mayor Dorman decided that better communications were necessary and that stronger policy should be considered when the new city manager (Jack Shelver) takes up his duties next week.

The naming of an aide brought up the question of City responsibility. People assuming posts with the City must be covered by insurance, the council noted. City Attorney Don McLean said that no positions could be held unless such positions were spelled out and approved by the council. If positions were assigned, the holder must be informed that no such positions exist.

In other business the council delayed approving ordinances giving utility franchises to SD&E until some language difficulties in the ordinance could be worked out.

Urgency Ordinances

Council adopted "urgency" ordinances regarding a Municipal Code and a Zoning Code. These follow existing county codes.

Council also heard a report on the proposed purchase of the SD&E right-of-way by the Metro Transit Development Board (MTDB); approved an alcoholic beverage license for the Blue Man Restaurant; passed a resolution regarding the part of the S.V. Sanitation District that is in the City making the Board of Supervisors the directors of the small section. That averts requiring Council and the Supervisors having to hold joint meetings on some sanitation district matters.

As San Diego County liaison officer Tom Parks is being phased out by the incoming city manager, the council adopted a resolution commending Parks for his "outstanding guidance and direction" in helping to put together the new city. He was made an "Honorary Citizen". He returns to full County duty next week.

"We'll miss him," Mayor Dorman said.

In another resolution, the mayor had the unique opportunity of reading one that commended his father, Attorney V. J. Dorman, for 25 years of service to the community in the formation and counseling to the L.G. Fire Department. The Department merged with the City November 1.

An invitational dinner by local citizens will fete V. J. Dorman Saturday.

Poll Rejects Plan To Extend College

Lemon Grove City Councilman Jack Doherty presided at a neighborhood meeting of 28 Broadway Heights residents to discuss the proposed extension of College ave.

The extension is 5-8 years away it is believed. The construction is from Imperial to 69th st.

According to Doherty's intern administrative assistant, Paul Copeland, a poll taken after the discussion resulted in 26-2 against.

Copeland said that a part-way extension was also voted down 26-2.

However, the proposed paving of 69th st. from San Miguel to Mt. Vernon got 100% support.

Doherty told the group that the expediency with which the

Doherty Seeks Sheriff's Post

Copeland said the Councilman Doherty had taken a year's leave of absence from his post in the legal department of the San Diego Police Department to run for County Sheriff. Doherty said he is an "unannounced" candidate.

That election is November 1978.

extension would be constructed depended on what position the Lemon Grove City Council takes.

He said the project stands 114 on a priority list of more than a thousand county road projects.

Broadway Heights residents are in San Diego City but most of the property is in the L.G. School District.

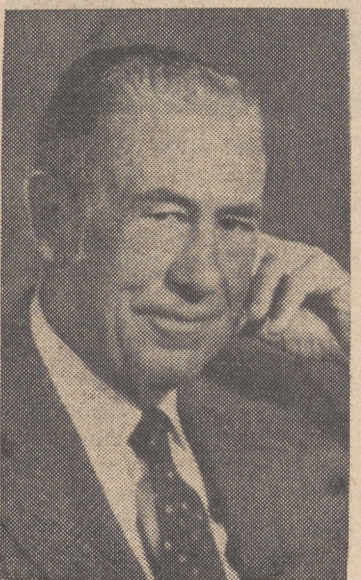

The meeting was urged by members of the Central Baptist Church who were concerned about the demand of the county to install $38,000 worth of curbs and sidewalks on the church property in anticipation of the extension.

'Father' of L.G. Fire Department to be Feted

Newsman end their stories with the symbol -30-

Vroman J. Dorman (VJ), one of San Diego's most distinguished attorneys, signed off his career as counsel for the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District with -25-

That's for the 25 years he served as legal advisor and attorney for the District.

V. J. Dorman

The L.G. Fire District today stands as one of the most efficient and most highly rated of all fire departments in the county—because of Dorman's efforts.

In acknowledgement of that fact, former directors of the district's board together with past and present executives of the department, some distinguished citizens, and family members, will pay homage to Dorman at a banquet Saturday evening at Chinese Garden at Broadway and Kempf sts., in Lemon Grove. It is an invitational affair.

Dorman supervised the circulation of the petition in 1949 by which the Lemon Grove Fire Department was founded in 1950.

Without Pay

He served the newly-formed district unofficially and without pay for the first 5 years during which time he engineered an election that was linked with a $30,000 bond issue. The funds paid for the first pieces of equipment. The local fire insurance rates dropped dramatically. More importantly, good fire protection was afforded the residents and scores of structures have been saved. Some people are alive today because of the home-based department.

Prior to that time fire protection was provided by units of State Forestry.

The formation election was successfully held in 1950. He arranged for the county to bear the cost of the election. The $30,000 bond issue was used to pay for the property on which the community's sole station now stands ($8,000); some was used for equipment ($17,000) and fire hydrants ($5,000).

That's where the $30,000 went. He arranged for the county to advance funds for the 1951 payroll but the district has been in the black ever since.

Low Cost Insurance

The district has one of the best fire protection ratings which reads "one of the lowest insurance rates" in the county and during the years the firemen were among the most efficient.

An interesting incident came at the inception of the district. There was a flaw in the legal description just as the legislature was closing for the year.

With only hours to spare, Dorman and another district official flew to Sacramento and both the assembly and the senate passed the corrected legislation in the closing minutes of the session. Otherwise the fire department would have had to wait until the following year to start.

On November 1st, the City of Lemon Grove absorbed the District and the city council has become the directors of the department. The tax rate of $6.5 cents is dropped.

For those, and other services, provided by attorney V. J. Dorman, the Saturday night banquet is being held.

Lemon Grove Fire Chief Robert Adams will be master of ceremonies.

This Week's RECIPE

Barbecued Duckling Jamboree

A sportsman's delicacy, autumn is traditionally well-timed for duck.

Barbecued Duckling Jamboree imparts a new dimension of flavor to duckling enhanced by featured orange barbecued sauce. The combination of marmalade, orange juice, vinegar and mustard for basting also can be served with the duckling right on the table.

Ducklings are available from the grocer's frozen meat display cases usually throughout the year.

- Spit Roasted Duckling with Orange Barbecue Sauce
- 1 frozen duckling, defrosted
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 cup orange marmalade
  - 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
  - 1/2 cup orange juice
  - 1/2 cup vinegar
  - 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
  - 2 teaspoons cornstarch
  - 1/2 teaspoon rosemary (optional)
  - 1/2 teaspoon leaf tarragon (optional)

Wash, drain and pat duckling with paper toweling. Sprinkle neck and body cavities with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Skewer neck skin to back. Insert rotisserie spit lengthwise through duck cavities, balancing it on spit; tighten holding prongs.

Tie wings against breast, legs together loosely, looping cord around tail. Attach spit to rotisserie.

Roast duckling until drumstick is tender and beautifully browned, about 3 hours.

When using an electric or gas rotisserie, follow the manufacturer's directions. If barbecuing with charcoal, use an aluminum pan 8 inches by 10 inches by 2 inches or make one from heavy foil and place under rotating spit so that the pan catches duckling's drippings, thus avoiding flare ups for the fire.

While duck is cooking, prepare sauce. Combine last 8 ingredients and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt in saucepan; mix. Bring to boil, stirring constantly, and cook until thickened. Brush duckling with sauce several times during last 30 minutes of roasting. Serve remaining sauce with duck. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Wreath Classes For Holiday Decorations

Wreaths will be constructed on wire frames and participants will be instructed in the use of drills and procedures for securing plant material to the frames.

All wreath-making materials must be provided by class members. The museum will provide the tools and expertise. A materials list will be provided upon registration.

Cost for the 6-hour class is $10. Early registration is suggested to allow time for collecting and drying materials. The museum's Educational Activities Dept. number is 232-3821, ext. 22.

"Giselle" will be presented in Civic Theatre at 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday. Her performances have attracted balletomimes and dance critics from all over the country. Miss Alonso has only danced her famous "Giselle" only one other time in the U.S. in 20 years. That performance was in September in New York and was sold out 20 weeks in advance with tickets priced from $50 to $125. She has scheduled no other performances in the country until the Spring of 1978.

Good seats are also available to a gala performance on Nov. 13 at Civic Theatre, Lindsey said. Tickets may be purchased at Center Box Office, 202 C st., and all Select-A-Seat outlets.

The cast for "Giselle" features Miss Alonso in the title role, partnered by Jorge Esquivel as Albrecht.

The gala performance will feature Miss Alonso and Esquivel in the Swan Act, Act II pas de deux and in "Song for A Strange Flower," which was presented by the two in its world premiere at the Spolletto Festival in June. The new ballet was choreographed by Alberto Mendez to music by Scriabin.

Jillana, former ballerina with the New York City Ballet and American Ballet Theatre, will perform "The Lonely One" choreographed especially for her by Keith Martin, artistic director of the San Diego Ballet. Jillana, one of America's favorite ballerinas, formerly directed the San Diego Ballet.

Women and Children Free Again

Dave Wynne Scores KO Over Comeback Boxer

It was women and children free Friday night at the Coliseum boxing matches — and what a time they had.

There were 6 bouts with enough action to make the women squeal and excitement enough to keep the youngsters awake eating peanuts and popcorn until the scheduled 29 rounds were completed.

So many of them were attracted that promoter Danny Millsap is repeating the offer Friday night.

Women may enter without charge and with or without an escort. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

An oddment last week was that bouts were scheduled for 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 rounds. Of course some didn't go that far. KO's shortened the program.

The referee stopped the 3-rounder middleweight scrap at 1:34 of the 2nd round after he determined that Pat Mitchell couldn't defend himself.

Joel Carrenza of Perris was declared the winner.

Dave Wynne (203), Chula Vista's fighting hero, scored a TKO at 1:40 of the 3rd round of a heavyweight scrap scheduled for 7 against Amanda "Big Boy" Vasquez, (178) of Las Vegas. Vasquez is a well-known international fighter making a comeback after a 2-year layoff. His comeback was a disaster. Wynne, too, was a comeback L.A. fighter, returned after 2 months rest.

Scipio Stubbs, a classy lightweight, got off the canvas after being dropped by a combination of punches from Eric Bonillo of S.D. and won a split decision. Stubbs improves with every outing.

A 4-round heavyweight bout ended after one. Dwain Wiley of L.A. was declared winner after Neal Farmer, S.D. failed to answer the bell for the 2nd round.

Carlos Ortiz, a S.D. featherweight won a unanimous decision over Feli Ramirez of L.A. although Ortiz started slowly.

In a surprisingly good fight, middleweight Steve Delgado, a S.D. Marine just 50 days away from discharge outboxed and outsmarted Greg Stephens of L.A. Delgado appears to have the skill of a young Ali without his pretentiousness. He fights under the banner of L.A. manager "Murphy" Murphy, father of Spud Murphy, the fast rising featherweight.

This Week
Friday's card brings together two great featherweights — Irish Spud Murphy and Danny O'Campo. It'll be for 8 rounds.

Scipio Stubbs is coming back this week. He overcame the knockdown on the last card and came back to win. His opponent will be the fighter who dropped him.

Steve Delgado, the S.D.-based Marine returns. He takes on a fighter whose name is more like an epithet Mustufa Shabazz in a 6-round middleweight scrap.

Bert Lee, the pride of Campo goes against Roger Wells in a 6-round junior middleweight contest.

Amateur Joel Carrenza is coming back, too. He TKO'd middleweight Pat Mitchell in the second round of a 3-rounder last week.

Fights start at 8:15. The Coliseum is at 15th and S sts. in downtown San Diego.

TAKE FIVE

by John E. Wirges

The past, the present and possibly the future will be on the field at San Diego Stadium Sunday when the Chargers host the Denver Broncos in another class action tilt that offers proof to testimony of Tommy Prothro's tough schedule.

In a gesture of uncommon suitability to the occasion, Lance Alworth has been selected to the Charger's Hall of Fame and will be honored at half time of Sunday's shootout in Mission Valley East.

Alworth floods memories with deeds of past Charger glories. He, more than any other single individual, brought respectability to the, then fledgling, American Football League.

He raced off the campus at Arkansas and sprinted into the hearts of Charger fans with near-ballet movements that created an art form of wide receiving. For nearly a decade he thrilled Charger fans and brought hope to Charger dreams.

He was the long threat who drew double and triple coverage that spread defenses and allowed the Chargers to dominate the AFL West in the early days of the league. He danced for more than 1,000 yards in seven consecutive years with leaping catches and graceful sprints through seemingly motionless opponents.

He is the past, to be sure, but without him, it is doubtful there would be a present.

And despite all he gave, all his effort, all the beauty and grace he provided, he almost took himself out of the game, out of league and out of his richly deserving place in the San Diego Sun.

Alworth's last game here was played in the shadow of disillusion and disappointment. It was 1970, a season of injuries for Lance and a losing season for the team. More over, Alworth suffered personal misfortunes. He had business reverse and was in debt. He was at odds with management, with the league and with himself.

Only a few old friends went up to interview him after the final game of the season. He had done little during the campaign, less in the last game. He was sore and hurt, in both mind and body.

It was a shame to see one of the greatest players the AFL had, at a time when it desperately needed greatness, pack up alone and in silence amid a crowded, happy-with-victory, noisy shouting dressing room.

He shared a wistful smile and a word or two with the few friends who lingered a moment at his dressing stall. And then he was gone.

Over the winter he found peace within him. He overcame his troubles and made amends with the league and with Charger management.

His career, all but over at the wrong time and under the wrong circumstances, was given new life in a different town and with a different team. Two years later he retired on an up-beat.

He's a little heavier now, a little more slowed by time and the troubles of our days. There's a little bit of gray peeking out where once only golden locks flowed in faultless fashion.

But the smile is the same. It's still bright enough to lighten up a room with warmth and friendliness.

Alworth epitomizes the Chargers of old, with all the fondness of memory they so richly deserve. It's a righteous gesture that he be the first star to enter the Charger's Hall of Fame. He was the cornerstone of their very existence.

It also seems fitting, somehow, that he is being honored during a game that brings the Chargers of the present full face with their hope for the future.

Certainly the Broncos are one of the teams of the present. They are big, and strong, and powerful. And just the kind of team the Chargers do well against. And maybe, with a bit of the Alworth magic present, we might get a look at the promise of greatness in the Chargers future.

Cancer-Billfish Winner Named

Steve Williams, a San Diego property investor, was winner in the Frankie Laine-sponsored Cancer Research Celebrity Billfish Classic held last week in San Diego.

Williams, who fishes out of the S.D. Yacht Club won a prize of $1,000, plus a trophy and a cup.

Williams' fish weighed 145½ pounds and required 37 minutes to boat.

One contestant landed a 202 pound fish after 6½ hours of struggle during which no one else aboard could fish. He then learned, to his dismay, that he had dropped his line in the water 15 minutes before the 7 a.m. legal starting time. He was disqualified.

Proceeds from the $1,000 entry fee event culminated Sunday night at Shelter Island's Kona Kai Club in an awards banquet during which Laine entertained. Tom Hallick of "The Young and the Restless" and "Search." was m.c.

Billy Riley, manager of the Half Moon Inn, was in charge of the contest.

Proceeds go to the American Medical Center at Denver.

Santa Ana Here For Saturday Tilt With GC

Coach Dave Jordan's Grossmont College football team will go after its first South Coast Conference victory of the season Saturday afternoon at 2 when the Griffins entertain winless Santa Ana in SDSU's Aztec Bowl.

The Griffins conference mark is 0-31 after Friday's 34-13 loss to Fullerton, the nation's top-ranked junior college club. It was the Hornets' 9th win this season and 15th straight.

Grossmont's season record is 2-5-1, with 2 games left.

Santa Ana enters Saturday's game with a SCC standing of 0-4 and a season mark of 0-6-1.

Grossmont and Santa Ana have met 3 times in the past, the Dons winning two, including last year, 17-9, in Santa Ana. Grossmont won the 1975 match, 10-3, in Aztec Bowl.

Grossmont and Santa Ana have met 3 times in the past the Dons winning two, including last year, 17-9, in Santa Ana. Grossmont won the 1975 match, 10-3, in Aztec Bowl.

As expected, Fullerton was simply no match for the Griffins as the Hornets broke the game open with 28 points in the second quarter.

The only excitement for the Griffins during the first half was a 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by freshman George Castro. It was his second of the year. The freshman from El Capitan High has established two single-season records for kickoff returns — most yardage 481 on 17 returns, and most touchdowns, two. He ran one back 94 yards for a score against Arizona Mesa.

Season Looks Bright For Aztec Cagers

By John Maffei

SDSU Sports Info Director

San Diego has seen two professional basketball teams come and go because of apathy. If San Diego State University has its way, however, the basketball apathy in the city could end abruptly this season.

The Aztecs tied for the Pacific Coast Athletic Assn. (PCAA) title last season with a very average team. The 1977-78 edition of the Aztecs promises to be the best in the school's history, though. What's more, they'll play in a first-rate facility — the S.D. Sports Arena.

Head coach Tim Vezie has eight lettermen back from last year's 13-15 club, but has additional help in hand in red-shirts Steve Malovic, Hilton Hale and Rock Lee. Added to those 11 players are four top recruits and it all spells a bright outlook for the Aztecs.

Top Athletes

"I think we have as many talented players on campus now as at any time in the school's history," Vezie said. "We have some top players coming back, three super red-shirts who will be eligible this year and I think we recruited very well. We are going to be tall and talented. I'll tell you one thing this team will be awesome in airports. We'll have a lot of people doing double takes at our guys."

5 of Vezie's 7 returning lettermen saw considerable action last season. The best of the returnees are forwards Presnell Gilbert (6-5) and Joel Kramer (6-7). Gilbert led the team in scoring last season with a 15.4 average as a freshman. He also grabbed 6.5 rebounds per game. An ankle injury knocked him out in the 22nd game of the season, but he will be a definite factor again in 1977-78.

Kramer was an All PCAA pick last year after averaging 11.3 points and 9.2 rebounds on the season and 14.5 points and 10.7 rebounds in the conference. He is a great position rebounder and a fine outside shooter while Gilbert is an explosive leaper.

Center Returns

Also back are center Fred Branch (6-9½), guard Mike Dodd (6-5), pointman Dean Decker (6-0), forward Jerry Brown (6-8) and guard La Saipai (6-3). Branch was a starter for the Aztecs most of the season and played brilliantly at times. He ended the campaign with an 8.2 scoring average and picked off 7.5 rebounds.

Dodd and Brown were the surprise players of last season. Dodd averaged 7.6 points as a sophomore after averaging just 0.9 as a freshman. Brown, who was also a sophomore, averaged 3.4 points and 2.4 rebounds last year, but really picked up the slack in the final six games of the year when Gilbert was hurt.

Against Pacific, in the game that decided the PCAA title, the Aztecs were also elated about their move to the San Diego Sports Arena where the team will play all its games this season. The Arena floor has been resurfaced with the center jump circle now featuring the Aztec logo.

"We're really fired up about the move to the Arena," Vezie said. "I think we'll be able to attract a lot of fans to our games and with a winning product it can only be a good situation."

Eagles Trounce Mats' 49-13

By Dan Danner

If you wondered who the No 1 county team is, ask the Matadors. Friday the Granite Hills Eagles flew into town and pecked the Matadors apart by the score of 49-13.

It was billed as the Game of the Year in the Grossmont league with the Matadors losing only once. The Eagles had a perfect record.

The Mats opened the game on a 72 yard running score with Keith Morgan carrying the ball.

After the Matadors opening attack, the Eagles roared back with a 73 yard drive of their own ending with a 3 yard pass from Quarterback Jim Jacob to Scott Rauch.

The Eagles and the Matadors scored again in the half. Half score 14-13 Eagles.

The turning point came in the third quarter.

Up until that time the Mats had played a good tight game. The Eagles drove the second half kick-off back down the field to widen the score.

The Matadors were hampered by fumbles and interceptions all night.

The Eagles have now won their second straight league championship behind the guidance of coach Dwight Morris.

This week the Matadors will host the fighting Vaqueros from El Capitan high. They must win for a chance of a play-off spot. Even though a loss would put the Mats in a three way tie their future would look dim.

The game is 8 p.m. at Mt. Miguel.

Granite Hills 14 0 21 12-49

Mount Miguel 7 6 0 6-19

Tim Vezie

(6-7) from College of Southern Idaho where he averaged 21.0 points and 8.4 rebounds. Goetz should help right away.

The other new men are second team AAAA All-CIF players of out the Los Angeles area in center Brett Barnett (7-1) from Glendale High School and 5-11 pointman Tony Gwynn from Long Beach Poly High School. The fourth player is forward Michael Gay from San Diego's Patrick Henry High School where he was All-CIF.

The Aztecs are also elated about their move to the San Diego Sports Arena where the team will play all its games this season. The Arena floor has been resurfaced with the center jump circle now featuring the Aztec logo.

"We're really fired up about the move to the Arena," Vezie said. "I think we'll be able to attract a lot of fans to our games and with a winning product it can only be a good situation."

Broncos Bring 7-1 Record Against Chargers 4-4 Sun.

You can't argue much with a team that's 7-1.

The Broncos also won 6 of its first 7 games in 1962 before leveling off at 7-7.

The Chargers are at 4-4. If the Chargers have hopes that the 1977 leveling off period will start with their arrival at the San Diego Stadium Sunday, they are keeping it secret. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

There isn't much room for optimism. The Broncos came through a tough month, winning 3 of 4 against Oakland (twice), Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. Punt returner Rick Upchurch set a club record against the Steelers with 167 yards, including an 87 yard touchdown return.

The former Aztecs will face the Chargers. Wide receiver Have Moses (19.8 average), quarterback Craig Penrose (11 for 18 passes) and tackle Claude Minor who started in 49 of 50 games since joining the team in 1954.

Last week's game needs little exposition. The Chargers played without starting defensive tackle Louie Kelcher and defensive end Leroy Jones only briefly as Detroit broke open a scoreless tie in the second half with strong running by rookie Rick Kane to win the 4th game in a row this year in the Pontiac Silverdome. Score 20-0.

Wide receiver Lance Alworth will become the first elected member of the S.D. Chargers Hall of Fame during the Bronco-Chargers meeting Sunday. Alworth will be guest of the Charger Backers Friday at the Stadium Sports Club weekly luncheon at 11:30 a.m. A 15-minute highlight film of his career will be shown. Players of the Week from the past three Chargers games will also be guests.

Pat Curran's NFL Weekend starts air coverage Sunday at 10:50 a.m. Bob Chandler's Chargers Talk begins at 11 with the Prothro Show at 12:35 and the game preview at 12:50.

Following the game comes the Lockerroom show after which Chargers Talk continues.

Jerry Gross, John DeMott and Scott Gregory will be at the game mike.

Tickets are available now for the 3 remaining games at the Stadium, plus Sunday's game with the Broncos. The schedule: Oakland November 20; Cleveland December 4 and Pittsburgh December 18. Windows are open 9 a.m.-8 p.m. weekdays but close at 6 on Saturday.

2 Features Spark Coliseum Wrestling

A Texas Death Match is one of two unusual pro wrestling bouts scheduled for Tuesday at 7:30 at the S. D. Coliseum. In it Texas Red meets The Canadian in a no rules, no time limit, no disqualification match.

Another feature is the American Tag Team Championship bout in which the champs, Black Gordman and Victor Rivera grapple the Jones Boys—Tom and S.D. If the Joneses win, they get the championship belt. If they lose, they get their heads shaved in the ring immediately after the decision.

The Incredible Buster Durrant is back with his brood of Mission Beach girls as supporters. He goes against Percy Mansfield.

In other bouts Chavo Guerrero meets KO Perez and Mando Guerrero tackles the Great Goliath.

QB Jim Freitas (No. 40) Meets Joe Davis (No. 8) In Grid Air Duel Sat.

A first class college football passing duel looms Saturday when Long Beach State invades San Diego Stadium for a 7:30 p.m. game with San Diego State.

Long Beach State is 3-4 on the season and paced by quarterback Jim Freitas, who last week was the No. 4 passer in the nation.

San Diego State is 7-1 on the season and is led by Joe Davis, who was No. 8 in the NCAA in passing last week.

Freitas, the brother of all-time Aztec great Jesse Freitas, has hit 114 of 239 passes for 1260 yards and 14 touchdowns. He has had 15 interceptions and has a per game completion average of 16.2. He has completed 476 per cent of his passes.

Davis has completed 112 of 191 passes for 1535 yards and 15 TD's. He has had nine interceptions and is completing an average of 14 passes per game. He has completed .591 per cent of his passes.

Last week, Freitas had an off game in a 23-14 loss to Fresno State. He completed just seven of 27 passes for 93 yards and had two interceptions.

Davis, meanwhile, played his best game as an Aztec, hitting 15 of 23 passes for 314 yards and three scores in a 29-7 win over Pacific.

"We think we're in for a very exciting game with Long Beach," said Aztec coach Claude Gilbert. "Jim Freitas is a fine passer and Long Beach had a good offense. And if anyone thinks for an instant that Long Beach won't be coming after us with fire in their eyes, they are mistaken."

After our effort against Pacific last week, I would hope we would be ready for an emotional 49er club. We played a super first half against Pacific. We did almost everything right in the first half and then flattened out a bit in the second half. We got a super effort from Joe Davis and some hard running from David Turner. And the defense played extremely well again."

Local Students Win Rotary Club Grants

Two area scholars have been named as recipients of Rotary Foundation educational grants for studies abroad during the 1978-79 academic year.

Spring Valley resident Carrie Lorraine Reynolds, sponsored by the Rotary Club of El Cajon, has received a graduate fellowship for Latin studies in socio-educational development and research at the University of Costa Rica, San Jose.

Recipient Steven Deward Clay of Lemon Grove will specialize in modern European history at Oxford University. Nominated by the Old Mission Rotary Club, he now is doing graduate work in France.

Rotary International District 534 governor James C. Haugh announced the awards as part of annual observances of Rotary Foundation Week, Nov. 13-19.

He said Rotary Foundation awards provide for academic, travel and living expenses for one year of study in a foreign country, with district 534 to host students from Finland, Japan, England and Brazil during 1978-79.

Applications for foundation support for the 1979-80 academic year are now being accepted by area Rotary Clubs. The deadline is March 1.

Haugh said Rotary districts in more than 100 nations are currently sponsoring 588 graduate fellowships, 87 undergraduate scholarships, 55 technical training awards and 85 grants for teachers of the handicapped.

Cranston Rebounds HEW In Medicare Plan Fight

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.) recently called Department of Health, Education and Welfare bureaucrats the latest targets in his five-year long battle to correct a deficiency in the medicare system which leaves thousands of the elderly without adequate hospitalization and medical insurance.

Cranston told a conference of health insurance executives he intends to fight "HEWS bureaucratically induced" opposition to his bill (S. 1993) to permit certain elderly persons, including Social Security pensioners over 62, to "buy into" the medicare program.

Cranston explained many people who retire at age 62 are without any medical coverage whatever because they are no longer eligible for their private group health plans and yet must wait until they are 65 for medicare.

"There is no real justification for that 3-year gap and no real justification for the difficulty we in the Senate have faced in trying to close that gap," Cranston said. "Four times since 1972 the Senate has approved my bill and four times we have been shot down by the House. The most recent, just two weeks ago, with the aid and comfort of the HEW bureaucracy."

Cranston said the Senate Finance Committee last month incorporated his bill in the Senate version of H.R. 3, the Medicare-Medicaid Anti-Fraud and Abuse Amendments. But it was knocked out of the final legislation, which emerged from conference Oct. 11, because House conferees voted almost unanimously against it.

The lone exception was Congressman James C. Corman (D., Van Nuys) who had introduced a companion to the Cranston bill "and spoke eloquently on its behalf," Cranston said.

"The key to House opposition this time were the arguments made against my bill by HEW bureaucrats," Cranston said.

"I don't think the argument is valid. I believe virtually everyone at that age will want to take immediate advantage of medicare coverage if it were available and they could afford it," Cranston said.

"You can be perfectly well one day and sick the next. Everyone knows that, especially the elderly. Moreover, it is the sick who obviously need medical care. And if they are old as well as sick they are most in need of medicare. We should not turn our backs on the people who need help most."

Cranston said there was "a new ray of hope" in assurances given during the conference by Congressman Dan Rostenkowski (D., Chicago), chairman of the House Ways and Means Subcommittee on Health, that he would conduct hearings on the Cranston-Corman measure early next year.

"That would be the first positive action by the House on this problem," Cranston said. "We've never gotten that far in the House before. And that makes us hopeful."

Besides Social Security retirees 62 and over, anyone over 60 also would be permitted to buy into medicare under the Cranston bill if:

1. The spouse is over 65 and enrolled in medicare, or
2. She is a divorced mother or widow caring for a child under 18 who is receiving Social Security payments based on a worker's record, or
3. He or she is the dependent parent of a deceased worker, or
4. He or she is retired on Social Security disability. The present two-year waiting period would be waived.

"Because these people would pay their own way," Cranston said, "their joining the medicare system would not result in any additional cost to the taxpayer or burden on the federal budget."

Any Way You Flip It ...It Comes Up Pizza

Will Lemon Grove's famed lemon landmark be supplanted by a pizza?

Probably not, but the community that has attracted attention worldwide as a community of lemon ranchers can now claim some attention for its burgeoning number of restaurants specializing in Italian food.

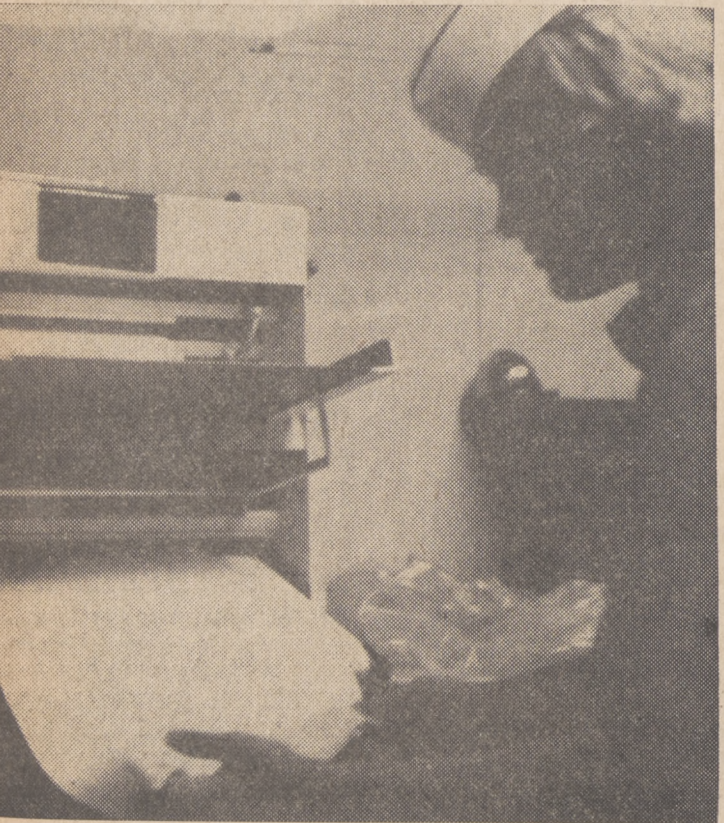

Our photographer scampered down Broadway led by the garlic-laden fragrance of parmesan sauce and checked out the pizza-making ability of Italian food restaurants on Lemon Grove's main stem.

Spinning a wafer-thin disc of dough, often more than two feet wide takes ability and is the trademark of most pizza makers. Obviously, the bigger and higher it goes, the better the pizzatorial show biz.

Left — Nick Farella, who owns Lido's at 7252 Broadway, the oldest Italian restaurant, flips high the dough which will soon be brimming over with a combination of sauces, cheese and peppers.

At Leone's 7836 Broadway, Joe Lobaglio is restricted only by the ceiling as he prepares the dough for king-sized pizza.

At the Pizza Hut at 7965 Broadway, John Horne disdains the thin-and-flip method. "We make 'em faster and constant in size, shape and thickness," he says.

Ricky Phillips, manager of Filippi's Pizza Grotto, 8035 Broadway, doesn't get much altitude but look at the size.

Supervisor Hedgecock's Advisory Emergency 'Phone is 911

By Supervisor
Roger Hedgecock

When an emergency situation arises — car accident, heart attack, accidental poisoning, crime in progress — who do you call? In many instances valuable time is lost in reporting an emergency because the appropriate number cannot be found.

This dilemma is understandable since there are more than 139 different emergency phone numbers throughout San Diego County. However, a solution is in sight in the form of a simple three digit emergency phone number — 9-1-1.

911 is a consolidated emergency phone number keyed to specific services for the various cities and unincorporated areas. For example if you live in the City of San Diego and dialed 911 the system would route your call to the city correspondingly.

If the call is made in the unincorporated area of the County bordering a city, the 911 system would route the call for County services. This service is made possible by a feature of the system known as "selective routing".

Selective routing directs calls to the proper answering point where they can be automatically transferred to the correct emergency response at the push of a button.

911 will be operational in San Diego County in 1979. Recent state legislation specifies that 911 service be available throughout California by 1984. Also due by that date is coin-free dialing of 911 and "O" operator from pay phones throughout the state.

California was the first state in the country to mandate 911 by a specific date. Eventually, the emergency number will be in effect throughout the United States and Canada.

to 911 in California is estimated at $50 million. San Diego County's share of that bill stands at approximately $4 million.

State law has imposed a surcharge on all telephone bills and earmarked the revenues exclusively for 911 conversion. The one-half of one percent surcharge went into effect in August of this year. The tax appears on phone bills of all PacTel and GenTel customers.

Since 911 will not be available in San Diego until 1979, I urge you to maintain a current listing of emergency numbers in a location near your phone. Below is a listing of those numbers you may need in an emergency.

Federal Aid Given County Aids Indochinese Refugees

President Carter averted a $2 million County welfare expenditure late last week when he signed the bill extending federal aid to Indochinese refugees, County Supervisor Lucille V. Moore said.

The two-year-old Indochinese Refugee Assistance Program expired September 30, but was extended for one month. If the new bill, HR 7769, had not been signed into law, San Diego County would have had to assume total responsibility for payments to the 2,320 refugees now receiving public assistance here, Mrs. Moore said.

The payments and administrative costs are estimated at $2 million per year, she added.

"I congratulate President Carter for signing the bill, and I especially commend Senator Alan Cranston (D-Calif.) for his efforts in obtaining proper relief for San Diego and other counties," Mrs. Moore said.

Amendments authored by Senator Cranston provide for reimbursing counties for welfare assistance, administrative costs, and social services for such programs as English as a Second Language.

The four-year program will be funded on a descending scale with 100 percent federal reimbursement to counties the first year, 75 percent the second, 50 percent the third, and 25 percent the final year.

It not only describes solar heating systems, but tells you how to save dollars by using the sun for heating. For your copy of "Buying Solar", (Item 114E), send $1.85 to the Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

GOP Bill Would Aid Social Security

The House Republican Policy Committee called for support of H.R. 9595, the Republican initiative, to restore financial stability and equity to the Social Security Program deficit versus the tax route of H.R. 9346, the bill reported by the Democrats of the House Ways and Means Committee with the support of the Carter Administration.

The Republicans charged that H.R. 9346 deals a crushing blow to middle income Americans and the economy in general by dramatically increasing the wage base on which Social Security taxes are levied.

The Policy Committee also charged that the Carter Administration's social security proposals would tax American workers' earnings an additional $4 billion by 1982 directly contradicting President Carter's campaign promise to "never increase taxes for the working people of our country and the lower and middle income groups".

The Republican Policy Committee claimed that the Republican initiative H.R. 9595 would:

- (1) make the social security program financially sound for at least the next 75 years with no tax increase until 1981 and with less than a 1.2 percent tax increase over present rates for the 75-year span;
- (2) strengthen the insurance character of the program;
- (3) improve the treatment of women under the program;
- (4) make long-needed adjustments to reflect changes in living and working patterns of the American people; and
- (5) move toward universal coverage considered appropriate for a nationwide, mandatory insurance program.
